

Uzma Hamid-Dizier, MA History 1998

Uzma is the Head of the Responsible Business and Inclusion at Slaughter and May, a leading international law firm. Uzma is globally experienced responsible business professional, with over 20 years of deep subject matter expertise in the corporate sector, previously holding roles at KPMG, HSBC and the United Nations. She is specialised in the delivery of business transformation and change programmes to create more open, inclusive and engaged workplaces that positively contribute to the societies in which they operate.

Currently Uzma leads on the firm's Responsible Business agenda which encompasses the operational activity in respect of societal and environmental issues, the role of the firm in wider society, supplier and client relationships. Uzma works closely with the senior leadership to integrate these areas into the firm's strategy and to translate them into everyday business culture and strategy.