

Humanities Lecture Series

2024-25

Lectures at 5.30pm, venue may vary

All detail on Eventbrite

Semester 1

Wednesday 2 October 2024

Dr Henry Dee, 'Future immigration must be strictly restricted': National economies, migration controls and the remaking of class in colonial Durban, Colombo and Yangon, 1910-1948

Wednesday 23 October 2024

Professor Paul Gooding, The Library in Digital Humanities, and the Human in Digital Libraries.

Wednesday 4 December 2024

Professor Karen Hardy, Paleo fact or flintstone fantasy? The Palaeolithic and its relevance to today's world'.

Semester 2

Wednesday 22 January 2025

Professor Jack Lyons, Seeing and Knowing.

Wednesday 12 February 2025

Professor Tom Harrison, Reimagining the classical past at the British Museum.

Wednesday 5 March 2025

Professor Sarah Richardson, Law breaking justified': women and challenges to the state in the early nineteenth century.

Wednesday 26 March 2025

Professor Katherine Forsyth, Imagining ogham. The Irish origins of a singularly original writing system.

Wednesday 7 May 2025

Professor Mona Simion, Disinformation, Politically Motivated Reasoning, and Distrust in Expertise

All details and registration on

<https://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/humanities/events/humanitieslectureseries/>

ALL WELCOME

