

Cadmus – an online assessment platform

We're piloting a new online platform for at least 1 part of this course

Why online assessments?

- Let's us offer you a better range of assessment types more reflective of real-world challenges

Why have we chosen Cadmus?

- It's simple to use
- You type your answers directly into the system
- Your assignments stay safe and secure
- Grades are fair and clear for everyone
- Your marks and feedback are easily available in one place

Cadmus – what will happen?

We'll get you prepared

we'll show you how to use it

If anything goes wrong, don't worry

we'll support you and help figure it out

We want your feedback afterwards

help us understand your experience and make things even better for next time

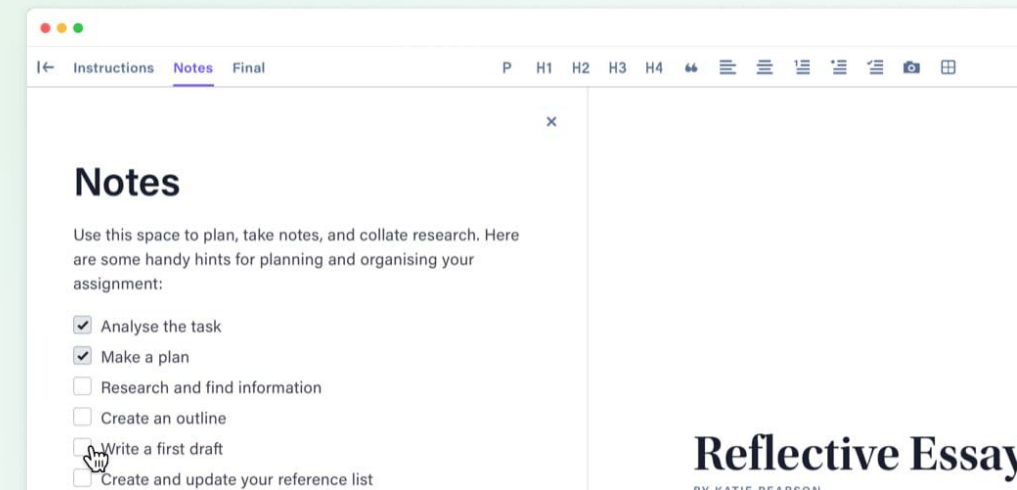

What previous UofG students have said:

"Relatively simple."

"Great! It's a neat platform. And certainly can be of much use to the course convenors."

"It was simpler and more efficient to use than typing on a word document."

"amazing, I loved using Cadmus"

In Greek mythology, Cadmus was the man who reportedly brought writing and the alphabet from the Phoenicians to the Greeks*
