

Centre for Cultural Policy Research

Arts policy and national identity in Scotland: past and future. Friday 19 March 2010

Participants

Name	Organisation
Jenny Attala	Doctoral Student, CCPR and former Head of Creative Industries, SAC
Anne Bonnar	Advisor and Consultant, Bonnar Keenlyside
Raymond Boyle	Professor of Communications, CCPR
John Caughie	Director, Arts Lab, Glasgow University
Robert Dawson Scott	Web Editor, Scottish Television
Peter Duelund	Director, Nordic Cultural Institute, Copenhagen University
Paul Docherty	Director, British Council Scotland
Sylvia Dow	Post-graduate student, Theatre Studies, and former Head of Education, SAC
Gillian Doyle	Director, Masters Programme in Media Management, CCPR
Alan Esslemont	Head of Content, MG Alba
Zoe Ferguson	Scottish Government, Cultural Strategy and Diplomacy Team
Susan Galloway	Research Fellow, CCPR
Christine Hamilton	Director, Institute for Creative Enterprise, Coventry University, former Depute Director, SAC
Richard Holloway	Chair, Joint Board, Scottish Arts Council and Scottish Screen
Huw Jones	Research Assistant, CCPR
Michael Keating	Professor of Scottish Politics, Aberdeen University
Lisa Kelly	Research Assistant, CCPR
Bob Last	Lead producer, Ink. Producer, Django Films Ltd.
Malcolm MacLean	Director, Proiseact nan Ealean
Euan McArthur	Lecturer, School of Fine Art, Duncan of Jordanstone College
Margaret Mary Murray	Head, BBC Alba
Mark O'Neill	Director of Policy, Research and Development, Culture Sport Glasgow
Murray Pittock	Professor of English Literature, Glasgow University
Philip Schlesinger	Professor of Cultural Policy & Director, CCPR
Donald Smith	Director, Scottish Storytelling Centre
Jim Tough	Chief Executive, Scottish Arts Council